

Untitled: Apologetically Urse

Ask for forgiveness from the heart
Prepare to be humble & let go
Oh! How human we are indeed!
Lonely tears need a comforting should to cry on Only U can be responsible for what U did, did not do, said, and/or did not say (the same for I}
Good to be your friend ☺ ☺
You and I

Selfishness overrides better intentions
Ouch! That hurt U & me!
Really need to transform into the better half
Ready to accept responsibility
Yes, it was my fault.

- Master thySelf & learn a new way to approach life's rough spots
as they arise
- Look at obstacles as an opportunity for personal growth and fulfillment
- Reach for the stars and you will truly be significant
- Ask: Do I want to be right or happy:?
- What is your purpose & vision? (i.e. Why are YOU here?? ☺]
- Will your past lives help or hinder your evolution?
- How can we learn to forgive, embrace, and support instead of tearing down & ripping apart each other?
- What lessons have you learned?
- What lessons will be tautily understood by you?

- Learn to secure the insecurities located within.
- Laugh often and well.
- Speak to and with someone, not @ someone.
- Love thySelf unconditionally.
- Love and live fully.
- Forgiveness is Divine.
- Imperfectuous human people-induced elements err.
- Step into someone else's existence to understand comprehensively.
- Look deep inside.
- Ensure personal & relational happiness.
- Remember it's the differences that unite us & the similarities that bind us.
- No one is an island existing in an extravagant vacuum devoid of all form, structure, and substance.
- Keep it real, yet tactful.
- Allow love to coalesce and gel, thus taking form.
- Appreciate everyone's uniqueness.
- Face-to-face communication.
- Speak from the heart.
- Open your I's to see and embrace that which is beyond your grasp – confounds & dumbfounds.
- Apologetically sorry I remain.

Purpose

Ease of mind through your heart & whole body

Always remember to live & be peace & not simply speak & do peace

Easier said than done

PEACE = FORGIVENESS

FORGIVENESS = PEACE

Will you be at peace too?

Peace is a state of mind.

Peace comes from the inside out.

Let peace rise in your being.

Allow peace to thrive.

Let go of the past – be in the PreSent.

Be forgiving & peaceful to all parties.
